Attractions in Kaohsiung

Welcome to Taiwan: <http://eng.taiwan.net.tw/>

The Pier-2 Art Center

Before some passionate art professionals tried to give it a second life, Pier-2 Art Center was just an ordinary wharf-side warehouse. Today's Pier-2 serves as a unique space where artists and students can present their works. On the open meadow are impressive artistic installations, shown in conjunction with the current exhibitions. People say they are always pleasantly surprised by what's going on at Pier-2 every time they visit this place.

Formosa Boulevard and "Dome of Light"

"Dome of Light" is created by Italian artist Narcissus Quagliata is the world's largest public art work made of glass. BootsAll, a well-known travel website, ranked Formosa Boulevard ranked as the second most beautiful subway station in 2012.

Ruifeng Night Market

Food and fun galore wait at this popular night market in Kaohsiung. With over a lot of vendors, the market offers an amazing variety of fashionable items, fun amusements, and tasty snacks at a fair price. This is a popular place for Kaohsiung residents to enjoy an evening walk and bite to eat.

Attractions in Kaohsiung

Dream Mall

Dream Mall, located on Zhonghua Fifth Road in Kaohsiung City, houses renowned domestic and international designer brands. It is also equipped with a bookstore and some nice restaurants. People come to the Ferris wheel to take memorial wedding photos, too.

Kaohsiung Main Public Library

An international design competition was undertaken for the construction of a green architectural structure of minimalist design.

Shikuchan

Commercial District

Shikuchan Commercial District has recently developed into the largest and most famous marketplace for imported goods in Southern Taiwan, presenting the latest fashion in sync with Paris, Milan, Hong Kong, Japan and South Korea, thereby securing the youth market, to whom it provides the most avant-garde leisure and shopping choice.

Fo Guang Shan Buddha Museum

The Fo Guang Big Buddha behind the Main Hall towers 108 meters high, making it the tallest sitting bronze Buddha statue in the world.
